

William Davidson
Former Westmeath Man Celebrates 90th

William Davidson, a former resident of Westmeath, celebrated his 90th birthday in Pembroke. Joining Mr. Davidson for a party at the Pembroke Seniors' Centre, were many of his family members as well as friends from over the years.

Mr. Davidson was born September 23rd, 1897 in Westmeath, son of the late John and Catherine Davidson. He grew up and later married Sadie Pender of Adamston Township. The two met through a mutual friend. They spent much of their married life operating a farm on the Gore Line in Westmeath Township. They also raised nine children; Harold of New Brunswick; Clarence of London; Muriel Bennett (Millar) of Stittsville; Marion Duffy (Pat) of Pembroke; Harvey of Pembroke; Helen of Ottawa; Lois Bradley (Bud) of Calgary; and Hazel Bromley (Keith) of Westmeath. A son Kenneth, passed away three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson moved to Pembroke 18 years ago and lived in their own home on River Road until three years ago when they moved to Miramichi Lodge. Mrs. Davidson died in February 1986.
