

JEFFREY, Andrew

OBITUARIES 9

JOHN ANDREW JEFFREYS

Funeral services were recently held at Deep River Community Church for John Andrew Jeffreys who died of a heart attack. He was 48.

Born in Westmeath he was the son of Samuel Jeffrey and his wife the former Jennie E. Crozier.

Mr. Jeffrey was lead hand mechanic at Atomic Energy of Canada, Chalk River.

Active in community affairs Mr. Jeffrey was a member of both the Pembroke and Deep River Masonic Lodges A.F.A.M. as well as being a member of the Deep River Community Church.

He is survived by his wife the former Eunice Jackson and two daughters, Patricia and Mrs. Ted Sheedy (Sheila) of North Bay.

Survivors also include one brother Lennox of Westmeath and three sisters, Mrs. Lester Laughlin (Vertie) of Kinburn, Mrs. John Graham (Blanche) of Westmeath, and Mrs. Walton O'Brien (Stella) also of Westmeath.

The service was conducted by Rev. Stanley Woodcock.

Pallbearers were Gordor Condie, George Laughlin, Harold Lance, Gregory Gervais, Cecil Primeau and Ken Miller.

Interment was in the Deep River cemetery.

Deaths

JEFFREY, Andrew — At his home, 68 Forest Ave., Deep River, on Friday, October 11, 1968, in his 49th year. Andrew Jeffrey, beloved husband of Eunice Jackson, dear father of Sheila and Patsy; brother of Lennox, Blanche (Mrs. John Graham) and Stella (Mrs. Walton O'Brien), all of Westmeath; and Vertie (Mrs. Lester Laughlin), of Kinburn. Predeceased by Cecil, Hazel (Mrs. Lloyd Hodgins) and Viola (Mrs. Edmond O'Brien). Resting at the Malcolm & Deavitt Funeral Home, 141 Renfrew St., Pembroke. Service in Deep River Community Church on Monday, October 14th at 3 p.m. Interment Deep River Cemetery. O12-c