INSTRUCTIONS:—Fill in carefully the answers to the above questions and the particulars required on pages 2, 3 and 4 of this form. It is important to give all the information asked for, as otherwise the amount of the exemption and the tax assessable if any, cannot be determined by the assessing officer without further inquiry. In filling in proceeds of live stock sold on page 2 the taxpayer is entitled to deduct the value as of 1st January, 1917, of any of these animals which he or she owned on that date. Write "None" opposite any heading under which you have no income or deductions to report.

PENALTIES:—The Income War Tax Act, 1917, provides that every person required to make an Income Tax return who fails to do so is liable to a penalty of $100 for every day during which the default continues. Also that any person making a false statement in any return is liable to a penalty not exceeding $10,000, or to six months imprisonment or to both fine and imprisonment.
